

RECRUITING TALENT IN NOTTINGHAMSHIRE

NEW APPROACHES FOR A NEW ERA

RECRUITING TALENT in NOTTINGHAMSHIRE 17 March 2021

AGENDA

9:00	Registration opens - sign in to test your tech (technicians on hand to assist)
9:30 – 9.35	Welcome from Maria Ward, BBO Stakeholder Manager Nottinghamshire
9:35	Keynote 1: Sajeeda Rose, Chief Executive, D2N2 Local Enterprise Partnership
9:50	Keynote 2: Anthony May, Chief Executive, Nottinghamshire County Council
10:05	Keynote 3: Jane Cooper, District Manager, Department of Work and Pensions
10.20	Keynote 4: Andrew Cropley, Principal, Vision West Notts College
10.35	Keynote 5: Jess Barnett, Director, The Treat Kitchen
10:50– 11.15	Question and Answer sessions (please add your question to the chat and rank other questions)
11.15 – 11.30	Coffee Break - Grab a coffee and biscuit ready for our workshops
11.30 – 12.15	Workshop 1: Apprenticeship levy unlocked – local authorities and other large companies pay a significant amount of apprenticeship levy. They have been given approval by government to transfer some of this levy to businesses in their area. How can your company access some of the levy to help train apprenticeships? How can apprenticeships benefit your company? Facilitated by John Sims, Managing Director, Deere Apprenticeships; Sonja Smith, Economic Development Officer and Heather Bennett, HR Business Partner, Nottinghamshire County Council OR Workshop 2: Working with the Department of Work and Pension to help you recruit and retain local talent – the role of the Department of Work and Pensions has evolved. The COVID-19 pandemic has seen an increase in universal credit claimants in all areas. How can new and existing DWP programmes help your business to recruit and retain local talent? How can you benefit from SWAPs, Access to Work, JETs, Work and Health Programme, Kickstart and other initiatives to help you retain staff? Facilitated by Tim Brown and Veronica Chibuzo, Partnership Managers in Nottingham City and Nottinghamshire
12.15 – 12.30	Closing remarks: Maria Ward, BBO Stakeholder Manager Nottinghamshire
12.30 – 2.30	Opening of the virtual market place: An opportunity to connect with local, regional and national employment and skills support providers. Please see the virtual map in the chat.
2.30pm	Event Close